SUICIDE OF WAR HERO NOGI AND VASSAR TRAINED WIFE MAKES THEM "IMMORTAL"

Last Act of Devotion to Mikado Amazes Western World, but Japanese Say It Arouses Enthusiasm and Patriotism of Highest Order.

All the Western world is trying to-day to grasp the story of the suicide near Tokio of Gen. Count Marcsuke Nogi, the conqueror of Port Arthur, and his Vassar-trained wife. In deep devotion to their dead Emperor Mutsuhito, at the sound of the first gun telling that the funeral train was moving from the Aoyama Palace, Gen. Negi quietly cut his throat with a jewelled sword and the Countess as quietly committed the honorable act of self-disem-
